Storyline

In co-production with JKS entertainment, this riveting teenage drama features world-established TikTok stars from YOLO and BIP Teams, the world's fastest growing TikTok houses.

A high school senior Margo (18) finds a pregnancy test in a school bathroom and lies about being pregnant to her boyfriend Rett, whom she is desperate to get back. This situation accidentally hits her makeup blog, which quickly goes mega-popular. However, as the web of lies extends, everything gets more and more complicated: her family won't talk to her, she is on a verge of being expelled from school and Rett still breaks up with her.

At the same time Margo becomes friends with Amina, whose test she found in the bathroom. Turns out she had sex at a school disco with a guy she doesn't even remember. The only thing Amina recalls is the braided bracelet on the guy's arm.

Now she has to decide whether to keep the baby or have an abortion, as becoming a mother is a big obstacle on the way to her dream of becoming a professional dancer. Margo vows to find the father of Amina's child and dives into the world of teenage rumors.

While Margo doesn't succeed at finding the guy, when Rett comes back to reconcile with her, the audience notices the braided bracelet on his hand...

Storyline

Madina lives in a remote Kazakh village, where she is always running from one place to another delivering orders for her mother, who works as a seamstress. When a former professional runner mullah comes to the village, he notices Madina and decides to help her develop her talent. However, Madina's uncle is against the idea as in her opinion sports for girls are not welcome. He also doesn't believe that an ordinary girl from a small village can win in a serious competition. While mullah almost succeeds at persuading the uncle, instead of taking Madina to the sports event, the uncle takes Madina to meet her future husband.

On the way to the meeting the minibus with Madina and her family in it gets into a car accident and Madina has to run to the nearest village to find a doctor. She comes back with paramedics and saves the day. This prompts her uncle into thinking that what has happened is a sign from the almighty and that Madina's talent is a gift of heaven.

Despite the journey so far, one more hurdle remains to be faced by Madina, as her future husband reveals he is strongly opposed to her passion for running.

Darina has a strained relationship with her father, as he constantly blames her for ruining her promising sports career. Darina's younger brother, Damir, was framed and unjustly sentenced to 10 years in prison. Learning that a large sum of money is needed to free her brother, Darina decides to earn money by participating in underground fights.

After a successful but scandalous performance, a blogger approaches Darina, asking for help dealing with her ex-boyfriend, who is harassing her online. Joining forces, the two women manage to extract a public apology from the hater.

Now, rumors about the mysterious hater hunter begin to spread, and other people online, who have no way to seek justice, start asking her to punish their haters as well. Darina agrees and does this anonymously, seeing it as a chance to get her brother out of prison.

PASS TO KILL

/ Series

In 2140, citizens can legally kill once if approved by judges. Vadim Sokolov judges such cases, some seeing it as justice, others as state-sanctioned murder. A dark truth emerges: the law may be a cruel manipulation by someone playing god.

Genres: Drama

Number of episodes: 8

Runtime: 48 minutes

Broadcaster: Unico Play

Year 2024

Language: Russian

Cast and crew: imdb.com

Storyline

The action is set in the year 2140 in a world where every citizen has the right to an authorised killing of a single person once in their lifetime. A person can only become eligible after a thorough examination of their case by one of the specially trained judges at The fourth right administration, a state institution, that regulates the "pass to kill" law. Vadim Sokolov is one of the judges and in each episode he tackles a new case, giving or taking away someone's right for revenge through a single shot. He and the other judges deal with people, whose situations do not fall under the articles of the criminal code.

Even though the right is presented as a good thing and a deterrent to wrongdoing, voices are beginning to denounce the practice as state sanctioned murder and a violation of the highest human laws... A parallel plot develops, in which we learn that the adoption of the «pass to kill» may have been the darkest act of manipulation in human history and somewhere there is a man who feels almost like a god because he decides who gets the right to be a murderer. And who doesn't.
